

XVI ALL PAKISTAN BIENNIAL MEDICAL CONFERENCE NOVEMBER 23 - 27, 1984. KARACHI

Pages with reference to book, From 309 To 309

The Sixteenth Biennial conference is being organised at Karachi. Besides business sessions and deliberation on the problems of the profession an elaborate programme has been chalked out. The Conference will be inaugurated on November 23rd and the scientific session will run from November 23rd through November 27th 1984.

While eminent scientists from Pakistan and abroad will speak on topics of current interest. free papers and workshops are other features. in collaboration with W. H.O. a workshop with wide range international participation on 'Primary Health Care' is also scheduled:

PAPER PRESENTATION.

The scientific committee has planned sessions on Basic Sciences, Cardiology and Cardiac Surgery, Nephrology and Urology. Neurology & Neurosurgery, Psychiatry, Paediatrics, General Surgery Orthopaedics, intensive care and pain relief transplant surgery, Otorhinolaryngology, Ophthalmology and Family medicine. Daily sessions for free papers is contemplated where topics on paramedical problems including nursing care and Sessions with participation of undergraduate and recently qualified doctors will also be arranged.

The time allotted to each speaker for paper will be 10 minutes. The full text of paper (including abstract) must reach The Secretary, Scientific Committee, before August 30, 1984.

Arrangements for slide, overhead and 16 mm movie projection will be available. Any other requirements must be conveyed in advance.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Registration, Rs. 200/- (Banquet by contribution)

Foreign Participants: $ 150/- (inclusive of banquet.)

FURTHER DETAILS.

It is proposed that you should communicate to Conference Secretariat of Biennial Conference regarding your enquiries on the following address:

The Secretary, Conference Secretariat

PMI4. House, P.O. Box 7267, Garden Road, Karachi - 3

Please mark., all communications Biennial Conference.

Organised by:

PAKISTAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

P.M.A. House. P.O. Box 7267 Garden Road, Karachi.3.